

Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act

What is Section 504?

- » A federal civil rights law that protects the rights of people with disabilities to equal treatment and access to opportunities
- » Applies to all programs and agencies that receive federal funding, including:
 - » Public schools
 - » Private schools and vocational schools that receive funding from the federal government

Why is Section 504 important?

- » Protects student access to education.
- » If eligible, a student with a disability may be entitled to a 504 plan that provides them with necessary accommodations and modifications to help them learn better.

Section 504 Eligibility: Section 504 protects people who have a mental or physical impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. Major life activities include:

- » Learning
- » Hearing
- » Reading
- » Performing math calculations
- » Walking
- » Speaking
- » Writing
- » Caring for oneself
- » Seeing
- » Breathing
- » Working
- » Performing manual tasks

How does a student become eligible for a Section 504 plan?

- » The parent or guardian must request that the school evaluate their child to determine whether he/she is eligible for a Section 504 plan.
- » The request should be in writing.

What are common modifications and accommodations under Section 504?

Modifications and accommodations under Section 504 can include:

- » Modifications to the school building to insure accessibility. Examples include:
 - » A child who needs a wheelchair may need ramps built in the school to allow access to classrooms
 - » A child with an impairment that affects her ability to read may need more time on tests
- » Preferential seating
- » Extra time to complete assignments
- » Shortened assignments
- » Alternative formats for school work
- » Schedule modifications
- » Assistance with health needs

To apply for free legal help, contact Legal Aid Line:

TOLL-FREE
(888) 534-1432

ONLINE
www.LegalAidLine.org

Legal Aid of Western Ohio, Inc. and Advocates for Basic Legal Equality, Inc. are non-profit law firms serving the civil legal needs of western Ohio's low-income individuals and families. This information is not legal advice. It is general information. It is not a substitute for talking to a lawyer about your situation. You may still need help from a lawyer.

Last updated February 2021